

DIVISION FOR LEARNING DISABILITIES

Roads Scholarship Program

DIVISION FOR LEARNING DISABILITIES

The Roads Scholarship Program provides $250.00 stipends to full-time undergraduate and graduate students to help defray travel costs associated with attendance at the Division for Learning Disabilities (DLD) National Conference. Full-time students who are members of DLD are eligible to apply. Undergraduate students must be enrolled during the fall semester with at least 12 hours credit, and graduate students must be enrolled with at least 6 hours credit.

Roads Scholarship Application

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

College or University _____

Program of Study: _____ undergraduate _____ graduate

Fall Semester or Quarter Enrollment (# of hours): _____ hours of credit

CEC-DLD Student Membership Number: _____

Student's Signature: _____

Advisor's Signature: _____

Advisor or Dept. Chair's Phone Number: _____

Deadline: 15 September each year

Send to:

Kristen L. McMaster, Ph.D.
Chair, PDSE
Special Education Programs
University of Minnesota
250 Education Sciences Building
56 E. River Rd.
Minneapolis, MN 55455
Email: ProfDev@TeachingLD.org

Visit TeachingLD.org for additional information about this and other initiatives of the Division for Learning Disabilities!

